Ethical Standards

Students must prepare, and faculty advisors must assure, that submissions for this competition are completed in accordance with the highest ethical principles and values. There must be no violation of copyright laws, misrepresentation of someone else’s work as your own, or any activity that would reflect negatively on the values of IMA® (Institute of Management Accountants). Any such activity may result in penalty or disqualification from the competition.

Ethics Statement of Compliance

The rules for the Student Case Competition state, no faculty or other professional assistance is allowed in solving the case. Additionally, the Ethical Standards require that copyright laws are followed and that there is no misrepresentation of someone else’s work as that of the students.

The signatures must be handwritten to acknowledge compliance with the above General Rules and Ethical Standards:

Team Member #1: ________________________________
Team Member #2: ________________________________
Team Member #3: ________________________________
Team Member #4: ________________________________
Team Member #5: ________________________________
*Faculty Advisor ________________________________
NOTE: This statement must accompany the completed submission form and final presentation.